Job Description

ROLE AND RESPONSIBILITIES

The role and responsibilities of the supporting young person or couple would be to support the team:

- Spiritually – in helping out in various roles such as leading out in worship Sunday mornings as the team endeavors to start an Anabaptist church in SouthEast Asia or nearby initially with possible other fellowships elsewhere in the future. This would include sharing a message (if a guy) at least once a month and helping to keep the team focused on the vision of planting churches among the poor of SouthEast Asia initially in unchurched/unreached areas.
- Emotionally – in encouraging other team mates in meeting for prayer on a weekly basis to encourage each other to be faithful to Christ and putting forth effort to understand each other's cultural stresses and any team dynamics.
- Physically – in making sure everyone in the church has their basic needs supplied. If not, helping to discuss how the church will meet that need.

QUALIFICATIONS AND EDUCATION REQUIREMENTS

1. Someone who has a vision to see the unreached reached and churches planted especially among the poor of SE Asia.
2. Someone who loves or enjoys teaching.
3. Someone who would be interested in helping to start an English Center or other possible business platform.
4. Applicant will need to complete training at Spring or Fall Long-Term Orientation @ MTC in New York City after being approved by the DNI board.
5. Someone who is willing to teach English / or some other platform to receive a business visa.
6. At least one year of formal language learning once on the field.

PREFERRED SKILLS

Able to teach: whether it's a message or teaching English as a business consultant at least 6 hours a week.

ADDITIONAL NOTES

The applicant will need to be approved by the DNI President/board and the couple on the field.
 There are current available business visas. Email for more details.
